The Yorkshire Oaks-Victory of Marie Stuart-Defeat of Mendip-The Convivial Stakes-Overthrow of Atlantic-The Great Ebor Handicap-Triumph of Louise Victoria-Successes of Sir William Wallace-The Great Yorkshire Stakes-Kaiser Wins-Defeat of Uhlan fer the York Cup.

The York meeting is by no means what it once was—one of the greatest in all England—but it is eldom that one fails to witness some sort of race that is worth while going many a mile to see, situated as the ancient Cathedral City is in the ds of a district of the country famous for its love a b) ses and of racing, it is not surprising that the at ering should have for ages held a most distinsned place in the annals of the turf, or that the Knavesmire should have been the scene of many of the grandest contests that find a record in Racing Calendar. The sport is always watched by an immense crowd of the natives of those parts with an interest which is not known in the South and the enthusiasm which bursts forth when a horse hailing from that country side is successful in a great race is a sight which of itself that is not easily forgotten. The meeting on this occasion failed to bring to the post some of our most distinguished horses, such as Cremorne and Favonius among the older animals. Doncaster and Gang Forward among the threeyear-olds, and Ecossais and Couronne de Fer. Mars. worth and others among the youngsters, but when Wallace and others of like kidney it could not be said that the gathering was without interest. The most notable event on the opening day was the Yorkshire Oaks, of which the following is a sum Gratinska was the first to show in advance, attended by Marie Stuart, with Cingalina next, for about four furlongs, when the tavorite took the comand, with Cecilia benind her. When they go; in the straight Gratinska fell away and Marie Stuart, shaking off Cecilia at the distance, won by a couple of lengths. The victory was gained very easily, but many were under the impression that the running was somewhat slovenly, and as the mare by no means looked so well as she did at Epsom, where she won the Daks, she went slightly back in the betting on the St. Leger, for which she was a long time first favorite. The opposite was, however, the case with her stable companion, Doncaster, winner of the Derby for he came into greater demand for the St. Leger, and was indeed elevated to the the St. Leger, and was indeed elevated to the highest place in the quotations.

The Seventeenth North of England Biennial was notable for the complete overthrow of one of the greatest impostors that ever trod the turf, Mendip, who was for a long time the leading favorite for the great Ebor Handicap, run on Wednesday, and had even been backed down to 16 to 1 for the St. Leger Summary:—

The result was that Mendip was at once driven to 20 to 1 for the Great Ebor and to 200 to 1 for the St. Leger, for which he has not the spost of a chance. Another unlooked for defeat was that of Lord Falmouth's colt Atlantic, who won a good race at Goodwood, so easily that he was supposed to be one of the best youngsters of the time; but that idea was dispelied by his performance in the Convivial Stakes, of which the lollowing is a summary:—

They were despatched at the first attempt to an excellent start. The first to show in advance was Rattiecap, behind whom came Sir Robert Walpole, the nearest of the others being Louise, Columbus, Falkland and Jarnac, Louise Victoria being last, Spennithorne and Mendip near her. Louise ran up to Sir Robert Walpole at the half-mile post, the pair being followed by the stable companions Falkland and Prescot, the latter of whom was merely started to make running for the other, which he did very badly. At the woodside Falkland ran into the third place, behind Rattlecap and Louise, while in rear of him were Prescot, Columbus, Jarnac and Saannon, in the order named, Louise Victoria being still some distance away. As they went between the rails Falkland ran up to Rattlecap, who gave way when they were in the line for home, leaving Mr. Houlisworth's horse in front. Louise Victoria and Shannon were both disappointed on endeavoring to get to the front as they turned into the straight, but untimately they succeeded and took seer and third places respectively, Louise and Str Robert Walpole being dead beaten. The race now-seeings to the between the three in front, but a new candidate suddenly appeared in Mr. Fox, who dashed lorward so full of running that for a moment it looked as if he would win. He passed Falkland, but he could not succeed in catching the two others, of whom Louise Victoria, taking up the running about 300 yards from whom, won easily by a length; a head separated second and third; Falkland was fourth, seven lengths off; the last lot comprised Mendip, Prescot, Louise, Sir Robert Walpole and Spennithorne. Time, 3:37½. Value of the stakes, £10 or $3,550. The eighteenth North of England Biennial was notable for the success of Mr. Merry's very handsome and excellent coit Sir William Wallace, better known as the colt by Scottish Chief, out of Lady Dot, who won the July stakes at the Newmarket July meeting. At the York gathering he also won the Colt Saping stakes, and is now first favorite for the next year's Derby.

Mi. Merry is Now in Luck, at the very time when he has determined to retire from the turi. Besides Sir William Wallace, he has one of the best two-year-olds of the day in Gien Almend, and he is reported to have a better than either in Rob Roy, who has not yet been out in public. Moreover, he has two of the leading lavorites for the St. Leger.—Marie Stewart and Doncaster—and it is probable enough that with one of them he will win the race. Mr. Merry is now advanced in years, and no doubt feels indisposed to continue the management of a large stud, but he has lately had such a large slice of luck that he may reconsider his determination and stick a little longer to the sport he loves so well. In the GREAT YORKSHIRE STAKES

We saw that great horse, Raiser, who is another of four leading favorites for the St. Leger. He won the race with ease, though Maldmant almost threw it away from over confidence, a fact which enabled Fordham to bring up chivalrous to within a length of the winner. Mr. Savile was not so fortunate in the York Cup, fo

SPORT IN THE WEST.

The Fall Meeting at Dexter Park, Chicago-Billiards-The Ring-Allen and McCoole.

CHICAGO, Sept. 4, 1873. The programme for the fall meeting at Dexter Park is made public to-day. Last week Mr. Albert S. Gage, one of the three or four gentlemen interested in the Park, telegraphed from Springfield, Mass., that a $40,000 meeting would be arranged to take place here in the second week of October; but when he came to call upon the owners of fast trotting stock, he found that only Lucy and the Maid could be depended upon to come West, the owners of Fullerton, Camors, Sensation, Gloster, Luiu, American Girl, Gazelle, Lucille Golddust and the other flyers, who would lend the greatest attractions to the meeting, either being unable to come, owing to other engagements, or being undesirous of making such a long trip so late in the season. At this juncture it was resolved to get up a less ambitious programme, which would attract more local horses in greater numbers and furnish more local norses in greater namoers and durhish more sport, if the time were not so good. The days selected are September 30, October 1-3, and the programme is as follows:—

FIRST DAY—TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 30.

No. 1—Purse of $1,000, for horses that have never beaten three minutes; $600 to first, $256 to second and $150 to third.

No. 2—Purse of $1,500, for horses that have never beaten 2:30; $900 to first, $375 to second and $225 to third.

beaten 2:30; $900 to first, $375 to second and $225 to third.

SECOND DAY—WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 1.

No. 3—Purse of $1,000, for horses that have never beaten 2:36; $600 to first, $250 to second and $150 to third.

No. 4—Purse of $2,000, for horses that have never beaten 2:24; $1,200 to first, $500 to second and $300 to third.

THIRD DAY—THURSDAY, OCTOBER 2.

No. 5—Purse of $1,000, for horses that have never beaten 2:45; $600 to first, $250 to second and $150 to third.

No. 6—Purse of $1,500, for horses that have never beaten 2:27; $900 to first, $375 to second and $225 to third.

beaten 2:27; $900 to first, $375 to second and $225 to third.

POURTH DAY—FRIDAY, OCTOBER 3.

No. 7—Purse of $5,000, free for all horses; $3,000 to first, $1,250 to second and $750 to third.

No. 8—Chicago Sweepstakes, running race, mile heats, for all agres; $25 subscription, pay or play, association to add $300; $100 to second horse.

The entries will close at the Secretary's office, Grand Facific Hotel, on Saturday, the 27th inst.

The added money is thus a tride over $13,000. As the fairs in Illinois will have been pretty well finished by the time that the meeting commences the prospects are that we shall have large fields of horses showing from "29 up to '40, though entries in the 2:24 and 2:27 classes are not likely to be numerous. The management only gives one running race, and has abandoned the plan of racing morning and afternoon, a plan which the experience of the last meeting proved to be far from a desirable one. The absence of running races will hardly be regretted, as those given at the July meeting, with hardly an exception, proved eminently unsatisfactory. It is to be hoped that some measures will be taken to prevent the deliberate pulling of horses which took place in several of the races in July, and that competent judges will in all cases be appointed.

BILLIARDS IN CHICAGO.

July, and that competent judges will in all cases be appointed.

BILLIARDS IN CHICAGO.

The "grand three-ball tournament for $3,000" (though it is really not entitled to be celled a tournament when only such players as may piease the managers are selected to play) which has been advertised to take place here between the 1st and the 10th of October, and extensively written up in the Eastern sporting press, hangs fire. Neither Daly nor Garnier will come until their four-ball-game for the championship is over and they have had time thereafter to settle down to practise French. Another drawback is the disinclination of local billiard firms to contribute to the funds. It was understood at the outset that the games would be played on the table of the manufacturer who would bid most for the honor; but the large houses hold a monopoly of the cushions and are doing all the business they can without any necessity for advertising, and the smaller firms cannot afford the inxury. It is, therefore, probable that the tournament will be "off" unless private enterprise takes it up or reduced prizes are offered.

fore, probable that the tournament will be "off" unless private enterprise takes it up or reduced prizes are offered.

A match, 2,000 points, American four-ball game, on a 5 by 10 carrom table, for $500, has been made between John Bessinger and George F. Slosson, the former weil known by his matches with Coassy. For this sort of a game it will probably be a good one.

THE RING—ALLEN AND M'COOLE.

The last deposit in the $4,000 match between Tom Allen and Mike McCoole, to fight on the 23d, within 200 miles of St. Louis, was posted last night, by the standard advices from St. Louis are to the effect that the triends of both are confident of success, though very little betting is indulged in, those made generally being at nominal odds on Allen. Both men have been doing good work, though McCoole shows signs of staleness. Sporting men are generally shy of investing in the fight, as there has not been more than one honest fight in the St. Louis circuit for some years back, and Allen was not engaged in that. The impression generally is that the fight is "squared."

The Eastern and Western fancy had looked that. The impression generally is that the light is "squared."

"Squared."

"The Eastern and Western fancy had looked forward to a meeting in Wisconsin between Mike O'Connor ("Red-Handed Mike") and Billy Madden, the former having come West for the express purpose of fighting the latter. The match, however, seems likely to be confined to some harmless rounds in the newspapers. The men met on the 30th uit., at Berlin, Wis., to arrange pretiminaries, when Madden offered O'Connor $150 to make a match, giving him, besides, six pounds in the weights—Madden 124 pounds, O'Connor 130 pounds, both men to scale on the morning of the fight, which was to be for any amount that O'Connor might raise: "Red-Handed Mike" did not accept this liberal offer, but further negotiations are going OL.

over the delightful course of the Prospect Park Fair Grounds, and will continue Thursday and Saturday of the present week. There can be no doubt that the amusement which is offered the turf-lov-ing public during the three days will be of the most interesting character, as there are many horses at the grounds and the purses of such a nature as to entice large entries. First on the list to-day is the Trial Purse of $400, for all ages, one mile; $300 to the first and $100 to the second horse. Entered for first and $100 to the second horse. Entered for this are Warlike, 95 lbs.; Mark Jordan, 95 lbs.; Coffee's gray colt, 95 lbs.; Utica, 96 lbs.; Lizzie Lucas, 92 lbs.; and Hattie O'Neil, 100 lbs. (Donahue's entries); Gerald, 111 lbs., and St. Patrick. 105 lbs. (Boughrum's entries).

Next on the card is a purse of $400, for maiden two-year-olds, dash of three-quarters of a mile; $300 to the first and $100 to the second. In this there will come to the post Mothe Darling, Visigoth and McDaniel's bay filly by Bay Dick.

Third on the programme is a purse of $500, for and McDaniel's day may by Bay Dick.

Third on the programme is a purse of $500, for maiden three-year-olds, dash of one and a half miles; $400 to the first and $100 to the second house. This will bring before the starter Maid of Orange, 107 lbs.; Galway, 110 lbs.; Ransom, 110 lbs.; Carriboo, 110 lbs.; Quits, 107 lbs.; and Liverpool, 107 lbs.

The day's sport will wind up with a hurdle race, for all ages, welter weights, two miles, over eight hurdles; purse of $500, of which $400 goes to the first and $100 to the second horse. In this there will be Harry Booth, 158 lbs.; Village Blacksmith, 158 lbs.; Revenge, 155 lbs., and Blind Tom, 158 lbs. Pools were sold on these events last night at the rooms of Mr. Chamberlin, No. 1,146 Broadway, and at Mr. f. B. Johnson's, Broadway and Twenty-eighth street. # SAD CASE OF SHICIDE.

Arrest of a Druggist.

Yesterday morning Coroner Young was called to No. 2% Macdougal street to investigate the circumstances attending the death of Mrs. Margaret Kammer, a German woman, thirty-two years of age, who died on Sunday morning from the effects of a dose of poison she had taken the night previous, with suicidal intent. On Saturday morning, after Mr. Kammer left home, it appears his wife was waited upon by a rank swindler, who represented that he was President of a German association of which Mr. Kammer was a member. The villain jurther gained the confidence of Mrs. Kammer oy representing that he had procured for her husband a situation as watchman in a store down town at a salary of nearly $20 a month, but that $50 secarity was necessary. Mrs. Kammer, believing the story, gave the fellow the required amount; but later in the day learned that she had been swindled. Mr. Kammer found fault with his wife for parting with the money, at which sue felt so had that, proceeding to the drug store of W. L. Becker, No. 234 Spring street, she procured haif an ounce of arsenic under the pretence that it was to be used for killing rats. Procuring the poison. Mrs. Kammer prepared and swallowed a dose of it with, the result stated. Mr. Becker was subsequently arrested by Captain Williams, of the Eighth precinct, for violating the law in relation to the sale of poisons, and Coroner Young released him on ball. Deputy Coroner Marsh yesterday afternoon made an autopsy on the body of Mrs. Kammer, and found that death resulted from gastro enteritis, caused by the poison. was waited upon by a rank swindler, who repre-

WHY SHOULD MURDERERS ESCAPE?

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD :-In perusing your issue of the HERALD of Sunday. 7th inst., I was surprised on reading the letter of C. Smith in behalf of the prisoner Stokes, who now lies in the Tombs charged with the murder of James Fisk. I cannot keep silent on the matter, though I shall but feebly express my own feelings besides representing the views of the vast majority of our law-abiding citizens. I only hope that my humble effort in trying to expose the attempt about to be made in order to gain the sympathy of the public on behalf of Stokes shall be successful, or that it will at least call forth the opinions of some of our citizens on the case, showing that, some of our citizens on the case, showing that, though we do live in an age when men have to obey women more than sometimes is healthy, we also live in an age when a woman cannot tamper at will with the highest offices in our land—I mean our courts of justice. The writer asks the question what benefit it will be to New York if they do claim the life of Stokes as a penalty for the life of his victim, but seems to forget that, though the loss may not be great, we will be obeying the commands of a higher authority than either C. Smith or even the lighest Court in our land, that he that sheddeth man's blood by man shall his blood be shed. It was a woman brought Stokes to where he now stands, and I think it ill becomes a woman now to interfere on his behalf. By publishing this you will oblige an OLD SUBSCRIBER.

BROOKLYN COMMITTEE OF ONE HUNDRED.

A meeting of the Committee of the Brooklyn Committee of One Hundred was held last evening in the directors' room of the Academy of Music, in Montague street. Some time was taken up in waiting for a quorum. At a quarter to nine, finally, the requisite number being present, Franklin Woodruff, President of the association, took the chair. The reading of the minutes of the previous meeting took about twenty minutes. The Treasurer then read his report, which was approved. A resolution was offered to have the sub-committees send in their reports, with the view of increasing the number of the committee to 250. Mr. Hunter said he was opposed to the increase of the number of the committee. The resolution was adopted. The meeting then went into executive session. the requisite number being present, Franklin afternoon in the county court room, for the purpose of resuming their arguments over the terms of the union of the county towns with the city.

The Annexation Commissioners met vesterday

Judge Lott occupied the chair. After the reading of the minutes of the previous meeting the Judge said he had become convinced that the substitute which he had offered at the last meeting was not necessary. His object in offering the substitute was to save the towns from being compelled to pay large sums for city property. These obligations come due so remotely that the burden, he found,

Judge Hamilton, of East New York, urged in the Judge Hamilton, of East New Fork, urged in the strongest possible terms the annexation project. He said that the people of the suburbs were willing to pay for such necessities as Water, Fire and Police Departments, but they could not afford such luxuries as parks just now. If parks are left out of the assessments then they would aladly come in. The day was not far distant, he believed, when not only the whole of Kings, county but also the conn-The day was not far distant, he believed, when not only the whole of Kings county but also the counties of Queens and Suffoik would be included in the limits of Brooklyn. He even went so far in the stretch of imagination as to opine that great New York would soon be lound knocking at the doors of Brooklyn for admission. Judge Hamilton's audience "smiled audibly" upon this declaration. The Commission adjourned to meet this afternoon, when the substitute of Judge Lott will be voted upon.

BROOKLYN JAIL BOARD.

Comparing the Records of the Justices Courts with the Sheriff's Bills-Some-thing About Jail Perquisites.

Yesterday afternoon the Special Committee of the Kings County Board of Supervisors appointed to investigate the charges of malfeasance in office against Sheriff Williams met in the room of the Board, Supervisor Coe, in the chair. There were no strangers present, but little interest being evinced by the citizens in the proceedings, which have extended over five sessions. Ex-Judge Morris appeared for the Sheriff. The official on trial desired to correct his testimony, given during the last examination, concerning the period on which he took charge of the prison van. He said he took charge of the yan April 1 instead of Justice Thomas M. Riely, of the Third District Chamberlin's. Johnson's. | Court, was the first witness examined. He testifled to having sentenced Teresa Jones to iail April 3 for ten days. The Sheriff's bills showed the woman was sent to jail April 1 for twenty-nine days. She was discharged on April 29. The Justice's books showed that the same woman was sent to the Penitentiary on April 10 for three months. The Chairman charged that the commitment was raised to represent a higher number of days. The counsel asserted that it was a mistake on the part of the person who endorsed the commitment on the outside, and nothing more.

On May 6 the name of Sarah Simons occurs on the Sheriff's bill as being received in jail. She was discharged on the 15th of May. Ten days' board was charged. Justice Riley's book showed that she had paid a fine of $10.

The husband of Saran Simons, residing at No. 3

Carlton avenue, was sworn, and testified that his wife was arrested for assault and battery May 6.

Cariton avenue, was sworn, and testified that his wife was arrested for assault and battery May 6, and that he paid the fine for her after she was sent to jail; she remained in jail about four hours only. Supervisor Coe—And ten days' board is charged for this woman on the Sheriff's bill.

E. B. Crummie, Deputy Keeper of the Penttentiary, testified that Teresa Jones was received in that institution on April 10.

Justice Kiely testified that he sentenced Joseph Fage, for assault and battery on June 12, to jail, but he paid his fine. The Sheriff's bill shows that he entered jail June 12, and was charged nineteen days' board on that quarter's bill.

Page was sworn, and testified that his fatherin-law paid his fine, $20, and that he was in jail only two hours.

Martin McHale was shown on Sheriff's bill to have entered the jail March 1 and was discharged on the 10th. Ten days' board was charged. McHale swore that he but paid his fine ($11 50) to Justice Riely.

Caristopher Peters, according to the Sheriff's bill, was in jail from February 3t o March 2, and was charged twenty-nine days' board. Justice Riely's records showed that this man, who was sentenced to pay $20 fine for crueity to animals, paid his fine. He was kept in jail only about three hours, until his boas paid the fine.

David Monigomery went into jail February 27 and remained until March 8, according to the Sheriff's bill. The Court records show that David paid his fine.

Justice Riley said it was about May 1 that he first commenced to open court on Sunday mornings to accommodate those who had been arrested on the night previous.

Justice Ludwig Semler, of the Sixth District Court, was the next witness called, with his records. The Sheriff's bill showed that Alexander Jourdan, or two men or the same name, were received in the hall May 12 and discharged May 21. The Justice's record went to show that there was but one commitment made out by Justice Semler. He was committed for twenty days and discharged in ten, and twenty days and discharged in ten, and twenty days aboard charged.

K. Davis was received in jail June 20 and discharged June 29—eleven (hays' board was charged. The Court record showed that he paid his fine.

William Colligan entered jail June 20 and went out June 29. The record of the Court showed that he paid his fine.

Patrick Kenny went to jail June 23, and was released on the 27th. Justice Semler fined the prisoner $5. Justice Semler said he had twice received money as fines from the jail from Colonel Conraddy. He gave witness $5 once, and another time $25; understood Coaraddy to say the money was Yesteragy she ap-plied for an increase of alimony. Decision re-

> CITY COURT-SPECIAL TERM. More Divorce Business.

Before Judge Neilson. The married life of Mrs. Sabina and Mr. Patrick Prendergard has been an unhappy one. The result is a sait brought by the wife for a limited divorce, on the ground of all treatment. See made application yesterday for alimony and counsel fee, and the Court allowed her $7.50 a week alimony and a fee of $30. The case was sent to a referee.

COURT OF SESSIONS.

The September Term. Before Judge Moore.

A Grand Jury was to have been empanelled ye terday morning, but a sufficient number of persons summoned did not appear. Judge Moore fined each delinquent. Several prisoners were arraigned and plead to the indictments against them respectively and, no cases being ready for trial, the Court adjourned.

Court adjourned.

DIGNITY.

White Judge Moore was on the bench attending to ex-parte business of the County Court, a huge fellow entered the court room and staked up to the clerk's desk. He had a remnant of a cigar in his hand, which attracted the attention of the Judge, who notified him that he must leave cigars outside.

outside.
"But it is not lighted, Judge," said the man.
"That makes no difference;" replied the Judge,
"you ought not to bring your cigar into the courtroom. You are big enough to know better."
The man was thoroughly abashed and threw the stump into a spittoon.

SURROGATE'S COURT.

The Late Signey Dorlon. Before Surrogate Veeder.

The Surrogate admitted to probate yesterday the will of the late Sidney Dorlon. The estate he left is worth about $20,000 only. Mrs. Dorlon is the sole legatee under the will and the executrix.

YORKVILLE POLICE COURT.

Arrest of a Highway Robber. On the evening of the 21st of August Mrs. Annie E. Busteed, of No. 118 East Eighty-third street, was robbed of her wailet, containing $200 worth of jewelry and some cash, while walking through East Twenty-seventh street. A young man named William Reilly gave information which enabled Detective Falion, of the Twenty-first precinct, to retective Falion, of the Twenty-first precinct, to recover the stolen property, which the thief had pledged at the pawnshop No. 390 Broome street, kept by Edward spartenburg, who was arrested and locked up as a receiver of stolen goods. Reilly also told who the robber was, and Frederick Gartland, eighten years of age, a bartender, residing at No. 24
West Twenty-second street, was arrested on Sunday night as the person. Yesterday both were arraigned at the above Court, before Justice McGuire, sitting for Justice Coulter. Mrs. Busteed was present, and identified Gartland as the person who had robbed her, and he and spartenburg were accordingly held for trial, the latter in default of who had robbed her, and he and Spartenburg were accordingly held for trial, the latter in default of $2,000 ball, and the former in default of $6,000 ball.

William Thompson, a carpenter, aged eighteen, who says he resides at No. 212 Varick street, was committed for trial in default of $2,000 bail to answer a charge to the effect that he attempted, on Sunday evening, to rob the jewelry store No. 742 Seventh avenue. He denied the charge. Breaking Up a Dance-house.

For some time past Captain Killalea, of the Twenty-second precinct, has been receiving comnuntcations from persons residing in the neighborhood of No. 356 West Fifty-third street, kept by John Haum, as a lager beer saloon and dance-house. On Sundays, and Sabbath evenings especially, respectable people in the neighborhood have been shocked at the doings of a number of young men and younger females who congregate in Haum's place, to spend the day and evening in dancing and drinking. In fact it had become a trap for the respectable but unwary females residing for blocks around, and the people at length determined to sweep the place out of existence. Accordingly, on Sunday evening Captain Killalea, with a squad of men, made a descent on the place, and arrested twenty-nine young men and several girls, none of whom were more than sixteen years of age. The girls were let go, but the men and Haum were yesterday brought to Court, where he was held for trial in $2,000 and they were fined $10 each. Some paid and were discharged, while those who did not were committed, the Court remarking at the same time that none of the fines would be remitted. borhood of No. 356 West Fifty-third street, kept by
